Equality Act 2010

The Equality Act replaces the previous anti-discrimination laws with a single Act, It simplifies the law, removing inconsistencies and making it easier for people to understand and comply with. It also strengthens the law in important ways, to help tackle discrimination and equality. The Equality Act brings together over 116 separate pieces of legislation into one single Act. Combined, they make up a new Act that provides a legal framework to protect the rights of individuals and advance equality of opportunity for all.

Purpose of the Act

Strengthening, harmonising and streamlining 40 years of equalities legislation:

- Strengthening: improving the effectiveness of equality legislation
- Harmonising: providing the same levels of protection from discrimination across all the protected characteristics and all sectors, where appropriate
- Streamlining: simplifying and consolidating approximately 116 pieces of separate equality legislation

Protected Characteristics

1. Age
2. Disability
3. Gender reassignment
4. Marriage and civil partnership
5. Pregnancy and maternity
6. Race
7. Religion and belief
8. Sex
9. Sexual orientation

Age

The protected characteristic of age means a person belonging to a particular age group. This includes people of the same age and people of a particular range of ages, e.g. 'over 50s' or '21 yr olds'.

Disability

Protection is provided where someone has a physical or mental impairment and this has a substantial and long term adverse effect on the person's ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

Gender reassignment

Protection is provided where someone has proposed, started or completed a process to change their sex.

Marriage and civil partnership

Protection from discrimination for being married or in a civil partnership is provided in employment and vocational training only.

Pregnancy and maternity

For all areas covered by the Act; a woman is protected from unfavourable treatment because of pregnancy or has because she has given birth.

Race

'Race' includes colour, nationality and ethnic or national origins. A racial group can also be made up of two or more distinct racial groups.

Religion and Belief

Meaning of religion:

Religion' means any religion and includes a lack of religion. It is for the courts to determine what constitutes a religion.

Meaning of belief:

Belief means any religious or philosophical belief and includes a lack of belief. Examples of philosophical beliefs include Humanism and Atheism. A belief need not include faith or worship of a God or Gods, but must affect how a person lives their life or perceives the world.

Sex

Discrimination based on gender - sex discrimination is less favourable treatment of a woman than a man (or vice versa) because of their sex.

Sexual Orientation

Sexual orientation means the general attraction you feel towards people of one sex or another (or both). Most people are generally attracted to:

- people who are the same sex as them
- people who are the opposite sex to them, or
- people of both sexes

Discrimination

The law recognises four forms of discrimination:

- Direct discrimination
- Harassment
- Indirect discrimination
- Victimisation

What is the Equality Duty?

The Equality Duty is a duty on public bodies and others to carry out public functions. The aim is to embed equality considerations into the day to day work of the public authorities, so that they tackle discrimination and inequality and contribute to making a society fairer:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- Advance Equality of Opportunity
- Foster good relations

Positive Action provisions permits proportionate action to overcome disadvantage, meet needs and tackle under representation.

Where does the Act apply?

- Services and Public Functions
- Premises
- Work
- Education
- Associations, including Political Parties

Prohibited conduct:

- Harassment
- Third party harassment
- Discrimination arising from disability
- Duty to make reasonable adjustments

What's changed?

Here are some examples on how the law has changed:

- Strengthening disabled people's protection from discrimination
- Protecting people from discrimination by association and perception
- Positive action in recruitment and promotion which gives greater scope to address deficits in the workforce
- Strengthening the powers of employment tribunals
- Strengthening the protection for pregnant women and breastfeeding mothers
- Banning discrimination in private members' clubs

It also applies to marriage and civil partnerships, but only in respect of the requirement to have a due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination.
